

Mother Nature is Wild About Kids, Animals, the Environment and Shares Tips on Embracing Nature's Healing Power

JOANNA STARK aka Mother Nature is an award winning educator, naturalist, a curriculum writer, film producer and former model. She has 20 years teaching experience with disabled, gifted and mainstream students from elementary to college level.

Joanna may be best known as Mother Nature for her costumed presentations about the environment. Her Mother Nature Naturally presentations have been performed for thousands, internationally, in schools, theaters, museums, libraries, film and television. Her theme song, Mother Nature Naturally, was written and produced by an Emmy winning duo Rich and Gigi.

Mother Nature will enchant your audiences with her engaging personality, crazy critters and sage, timely advice.

Contact: Joanna Stark
www.MotherNatureLive.com
Joanna@MotherNatureLive.com
760-992-4727
Based out of Palm Springs, CA

STORY IDEAS

Parenting

- Does Your Child Suffer From Ecophobia?
- How to Get Device-Attached Kids Excited about the Great Outdoors
- Should You Let Your Kids Take Their Cell Phones on a Nature Hike?

General Interest

- What Mother Nature Wishes We Knew About Nature's Healing Power
- What Animals Can Teach Us About Living a Wild Life

Women

- Head-to-toe Beauty Secrets from Mother Nature Herself
- Health and Beauty Lessons We Can Learn from Lionesses
- Want to Boost your Energy and Lift Your Mood? Jump into Mother Nature's First Aid Kit and Just Go Outside

Timely Tie-Ins: Earth Day 4/22, Mother's Day 5/11, Environmental Education Week 5/19-25th, National Get Outdoors Day 6/13, Arbor Day 4/24,